WEB PAGE SCRIPT

In accordance with the Maritime Labour Convention, 2006 – Regulation 1.4 – Recruitment and Placement; AEQEA AB aims to provide an efficient, adequate and accountable system for crew candidates (Seafarers) to find employment aboard ships and so with absolutely no charge to them.

AEQEA AB does not use means, mechanisms or lists intended to prevent or deter seafarers from gaining employment for which they are qualified (Black-listing).

AEQEA AB does not charge the Seafarer(s) directly or indirectly, in whole or in part, any fees or other charges for Seafarer(s) recruitment or Placement or for providing employment to Seafarers. However, please note that:

- The crew member remains responsible for covering the costs of obtaining a national statutory medical certificate (ENG 1 or similar...).
- The crew member remains responsible for covering the costs of obtaining the national seafarers handbook (as applicable).
- The crew member remains responsible for covering the costs of obtaining a passport or other similar personal travel documents (excluding visas costs).
- The shipowner is responsible for covering the costs of travel visas necessary to join the ship.

AEQEA AB will not entertain applications of persons under the age of 16 years .

AEQEA AB will not entertain “Ship’s cook” applications of persons under the age of 18 years.

AEQEA AB is available to answer any requests for advice and / or information from the family of the seafarers; such advice and / or information will be provided promptly, sympathetically and at no cost. However, AEQEA AB, will first attempt to verify the credibility of the relationship prior to divulging private information regarding the seafarer.
